THE 2024 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

It is important as a rider to remember that all these portfolio's are mirrored provincially, and that you should always make contact with your provincial team, or the SASJ National Office (081 018 2224), before approaching National Exco members for assistance.

Meet your Exco

President - Mark White

This is Mark's second term in the hot seat! Mark is no stranger to Showjumpers, having sponsored numerous events through Mark White Nissan, including FEI Children's Challenge, Easter Festival and Equitation. When all other committee members cannot help and are scratching their heads, Mark is the one to have to make a decision!

Vice-President : Lisa Williams

Lisa needs no introduction, an acclaimed International Rider herself, who has won almost every single SA Adult Title or Trophy, as well as many FEI World Cup Qualifiers. Lisa is Mark's right hand woman and capably assists him with those big decisions

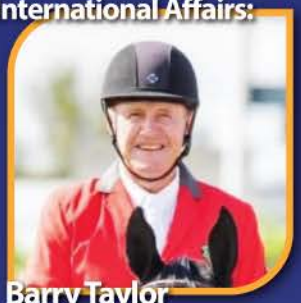
Treasurer – Conrad Fourie

Conrad is the most experienced and long standing Committee member, who keeps everyone on their toes. In Conrad's hands the Finances of SA Showjumping have gone from strength to strength. Conrad is responsible for budgets, Annual Financial Statements and the smooth running of the finances of SASJ. Conrad and his wife, Rene run one of the top showjumping shows in the country at their beautiful Revil Stables.

SASJ National Legal : Tania Siciliano

Tania is a very busy legal eagle who has an in depth knowledge of both the law and showjumping, being an open rider herself. Tania's portfolio is to assist SASJ with any legal queries or challenges.

International Affairs:



Barry Taylor

Barry has ridden internationally himself very successfully. Barry and his wife, Lorette, have what is known in the riding circle as the "Farnham Family". Barry has also served on the showjumping committee for many years. If your goal is to compete internationally, Barry is your man to speak to and will assist you with the protocols required.

Athlete's Representative:

Chris van der Merwe

Chris is a top rider in his own right, with the ability to ride just about any horse he is presented with. As the SASJ Rider's Representative, Chris is the one to approach with any queries affecting rider's at shows..

Development and Transformation:

Nicola Sime Riley

Nicola has been involved with the Development and transformation at SASJ for many years. She runs a successful and well known stable yard, and is also a top open rider. Any Development and Transformation (EDTS) rider, equine student, learner official or learner course designer qualify for assistance from SASJ and can contact the SASJ offices on 081018 2224 to find out more.

National Administration and Technical:

Gill Shaw

Gill is an FEI 3 star judge who has served on many committees throughout her career. Gill is responsible to ensure that the SASJ offices run smoothly and that the SASJ Annexures and Rules are fair to all riders and line up easily with the FEI rules followed in this country. The latest SASJ Annexures are available on our website and you are encouraged to make sure you familiarize yourselves with these, as Gill has been very busy and they have been updated for 2024.

SASJ Veterinary Representative:

Dr Sean Miller

Sean is a rider himself and a qualified veterinarian. Sean's portfolio includes assisting SA Showjumping with FEI and SAEF Veterinary matters.

SASJ National Marketing:

Emma Platt

Emma handles the newsletter, facebook pages and other marketing related items for SASJ National.

National Show Holding Bodies and Venues:

Heather Mpofu

Heather is renowned for juggling ALL of the many balls at Kyalami Equestrian Park. Ask any rider and they will tell you that Heather knows how to put on a show and the intricacies involved therein. Heather is more than suitably experienced for this role.

SASJ Coaches:

Tamar Gliksman

Tamar is a coach herself and represents all showjumping coaches on the SASJ Committee. Tamar has also competed herself at an open level.

National Officials: Regina Hobbs

Regina is a FEI Steward and Showjumping Judge and is responsible for the training and promotion of showjumping officials in South Africa. Anyone looking at becoming a showjumping judge, steward or course designer should contact her and she will steer you in the right direction. She also assists show holding bodies with securing the correct officials for their event. As an official if you require assistance with your practical experience she is also the one to contact.

The SA Showjumping Council consists of the SASJ Provincial Presidents.
