SASJ STATEMENT re SOCIAL MEDIA

Dear SASJ Members

SASJ is aware that a number of comments and posts have been made on various social media platforms arising from or in connection with the cancellation of the Outdoor Grand Prix Show by KPC and the incidents giving rise to the cancellation of this show. Not all information published on social media is accurate and true. The publication of content that is disparaging of or hurtful to others or that has not been properly verified and is subsequently proven to be false, has the potential to cause damage not only to the reputation of SASJ, but also to your own reputation and career.

We wish to remind all members of the SASJ Social Media Policy, which is published on the SASJ website and which forms part of the SASJ Constitution, to which all members are bound. SASJ urges all members to read the Social Media Policy and exercise extreme caution when publishing content online. Every member is legally liable for everything that member does, says or posts on social media. Failure to adhere to this Policy could result in disciplinary action.

Kind Regards
